My dear Mrs. Erwin,-

I wish I could express to you my sympathy in your affliction, and how soon I am for Mr. Erwin.

I know that you will feel that you cannot afford to send Albert to my school while there are so many ways for the money. but as soon as you can spare him to go to school anywhere, I will count it a pleasure to still be his teacher, without charge.

His example to the other children as a quiet industrious scholar will amply repay all I can do for him.

Sincerely your friend
Carrie Q. Fuller.
